

Nancy Dadami is transforming the way professional women function in their workspaces. She helps smart busy business owners create workspaces that make their heart sing, empower their work and shorten their path to success.

As an entrepreneur, Nancy started her Feng Shui business in 2004 to help women live healthier and wealthier lives. And that is exactly what she is doing. She has helped business owners and entrepreneurs get results.

Prior to establishing her Feng Shui business, Nancy was a high school principal and teacher. She used Feng Shui principles to create productive learning environments, inspiring and empowering students and faculty.

Today Nancy is CEO of Three Secrets Feng Shui, a graduate of the BTB Feng Shui Masters Training Program, a Professional Educator and Speaker.

She offers a wide range of programs and services from Feng Shui consultations, Feng Shui coaching, space clearing and blessings to dynamic seminars, and Speaking engagements.

Her hobbies include gardening, creating wearable art, reading, traveling, yoga and walking. She has lived in Pleasant Hill most of her life, graduating from College Park High School. Currently she lives in Pleasant Hill with her husband Ron. Visit Nancy's website.
